Maharajah of Mysore.

The humble memorial of A.Sreenivasaraghava Chari, Munsiff, Hassan,

May it please your Highness,

Your Highness' memorialist humbly begs to bring the following to your Highness' kind notice, gracious consideration and orders.

1. Your memorialist entered the service as Judicial Probationer in May 1906 and was acting as Munsiff for some time. He was confirmed as Munsiff 4th class on the 9th June 1908, and has now put in more than two years' service in that class. Your memorialist has always striven to discharge his duties to the best of his abilities, and he trusts that he has given satisfaction to his official superiors including the Chief Court.

2. Your Highness' memorialist is the grandson of the Late Dewan Rangacharlu and the son of the late Mr. A.Krishnaswami Iyengar, who at the time of his death in 1896 was Deputy Commissioner of Hassan District. The services which the late Dewan Rangacharlu rendered in his official capacity are well known to your Highness and have been generously acknowledged by Your Highness' revered father, and by Your Highness and by Your Highness' respected mother, Her Highness the Maharani Regent. Your memorialist begs to bring to your Highness' gracious notice the services rendered by his father, the late Mr. Krishnaswami Iyengar who died prematurely in 1896 and whose services the Government commended in the Proceedings issued at the time of his death.

3. After the demise of your memorialist's father, the Government were pleased to grant him a scholarship for his studies and your memorialist was the recipient of the Government's generosity from 1896 to 1906. With this assistance your memorialist was able to take his degree in Arts and in Law and to finish his apprentice course at law under the late Sir V.Bhashyam Iyengar, retired judge of the High Court of Madras.

4. Your Highness was then graciously pleased to bestow upon your memorialist the post of Judicial probationer and he has now put in more than 4 years' service in the Judicial Department. Your Highness' memorialist fervently prays that Your Highness may now be pleased to nominate him as an Assistant Commissioner. Your memorialist most humbly and respectfully begs to submit that the services which his family including his father and grand-father have rendered in Mysore and his own training and qualifications might justify him in approaching Your Highness for a further mark of Your Highness' favour.

5. For these reasons Your Highness' memorialist prays that Your Highness may be pleased to include him in the Civil Service by nominating him as an Assistant Commissioner.

For which act of kindness Your Highness' memorialist would ever pray for Your Highness' long life and prosperity.
